

Volcano Adventure

Anger isn't always just anger. In this game you'll describe different emotions just like a Volcanologist studying a volcano.

Setup

Cut on the dotted lines

Slide slots together

Tape the seam

How To Play

- Form into 2 teams or play together as one big team.
- Put all the emotion pieces into the volcano.
- On your turn slide out one emotion piece from under the volcano. Don't show it to the other players.
- Choose 2 volcano questions to answer for your emotion, then have your team try to guess the emotion.
- If they guess right, your team keeps the piece. If they guess wrong, drop the piece back into the volcano.
- Take turns until the volcano is empty. The team with the most pieces wins!
